El Museo To Benefit from The Santa Fe Show “Second Opening” Party

(For immediate release, Santa Fe, NM) El Museo Cultural de Santa Fe will be the beneficiary of the second “opening night” of The Santa Fe Show, Objects of Art. The festive event will be held Thursday, August 18, from 6:00 – 9:00 at El Museo Cultural.

The Santa Fe Show, Objects of Art, is a unique antiques and art show that serves as a compliment to the city’s traditional Ethnographic and Indian Market weekends. The Santa Fe Show will be open to the public for its final weekend from August 19 through 21, from 11:00 am to 5:00 pm each day. This boutique event will feature an elite selection of more than 60 vendors presenting outstanding examples of art and design in a wide range of media and historic periods including the work of living artists. The emphasis throughout The Santa Fe Show will be on the aesthetic importance and design significance of the works presented by galleries, artists and designers.

Attendees of the “second opening” will also receive two tickets for a chance to win an 18ft. Tipi painted by Indian artist, Billy Valenzuela. The proceeds raised in hopes of winning this beautiful work of art will go to El Museo Cultural. Additional tickets for entry into the drawing are available for $25 each by contacting El Museo Cultural (www.ElMuseoCultural.org).

As a gesture of support for El Museo’s mission, hors d’oeuvres and libations for the evening are provided by the Show’s producers, John Morris and Kim Martindale. Tickets ($50 each) for the event will be available at the door and may be purchased by cash or check. Updated show information is available on the web site, www.SantaFeShow.com or at 505-660-4701.
